Barbara Hopper Collection

Reflections

September 1 2025

This is a collection of about forty-five photographs I received from my Aunt Barbara, who lived in Toledo, Oregon. They were passed on to me by her daughter Elaine at Barbara's funeral at the Applegate Cemetery in Yoncalla.

Among them are several Smith brothers photographed in Roseburg, along with other Smith family portraits still waiting to be identified – as well as location shots – I believe at the ranch. The lead photo is marked "Bertha" on the back, but I've learned that sometimes a name refers to the intended recipient rather than the person in the picture. It may not be Bertha Bright Smith. Among the sisters—Dolly, Lolly, Millie, and Bertha—there's such a strong family resemblance that it becomes a real puzzle to sort out.

For now, this group is being placed in the archive as a working batch. I'll return to them later for careful cleaning and further identification.
